The Rev. gentleman entertained the Prince, but having been invited to a banquet by His Royal-Highness, excused himself from conscientious reasons. The Rev. PERSECUTION OF JEWS IN RUSSIA.—In an interesting article on Russia, in a recent number of Chambers' Journal, we find this melancholy paragraph: "Another sad spectacle were the convoys of Jewish children who are taken away from their homes in Poland at the age of ten or twelve, carried to Archangel, to bring up as soldiers or sailors, and taught to forget the religious and customs of their fathers. It was heartrending to see these poor children, their heads shaved, driven before the rough soldiers and dying on the road of hunger and cold.".....

has decided on opening a school at Beyrout. Monsieur Netter has succeeded in obtaining a grant of land in Syria, through the kind intervention of Redschid Pacha.

Albero.—We learn from the Univers Israelite that Monsieur Moses de Picciotto, consul general of Austria, at Aleppo, has been decorated with the order of Francis Joseph.

THE BLOOD Accesations.—An attempt having been made and echoed by two journals (one Armenian and the other Turkish), to revive the foul bood-accusation against the Jews, the government has taken immediate precautions to prevent the spread of this wicked allegation, and has at once adopted measures to protect the Jews.—Univers Israelite.

THE KARVITES.—A Jewish charitable institution has been established at St. Petersburg, for the relief of the way-faving, or stranger poor of our community. The Karaito Jews have forwarded a donation to this institutution, with a graceful letter.—Wochen-Schrift.

THE HUNGARIAN JEWISH CONGRESS.—In the Hungarian diet, says the leading Monsieur Deak proposed the adjournment of the practical execution of the resolutions adopted by the Jewish Congress—and the proposal for such adjournment was unanimously adopted.

NOTICES TO CORRESPONDENTS.—" Monitor."—This letter is not authenticated, no doubt intentionally. As the present Editor of the ('hronicle is resolved to maintain the dignity of the Jewish press, and not to submit to anonymous insults—" such as those contained in Monitor's letter; and which, in this instance, have been levelled against himself,' his London Jewish contemporary, and the spiritual and lay heads of the community—he will place "Monitor's" communication in the hands of the solicitors of the Jewish ('hronicle, with instructions to offer a reward for the discovery of the writer, and to take such proceedings as they may advise, unless a suitable apology reach the Editor before Thursday, 28th inst. Rev. M. Margoliouth.—Ordinary journalistic ctiquette precludes us from publishing his letter as now worded. When a writer or reviewer relects to place initials beneath an article in our columns, we cannot authorise any connection of those initials with a recognised name. We cannot review the J. with Chronicles of a quarter of a century ago. I. J. Symmonds.—The communication, will appear.
