GROCERIES FOR PASSOVER.

J. M. ELLIS & SON,
TEA AND GROCERY STORE,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

S. E. Corner Ninth and Spring Garden Sts.,

Will be prepared, on the 1st of April next to supply Israelites with a choice selection of Groceries for the Passover holidays, and great care shall be taken that everything be kept strictly according to the regulations of their religion.

Mr. JACOB HAYS will superintend the opening of the various articles, and will be in attendance to wait on his friends, from the first of April to the close of the season.

N. B.—Just received; a supply of Choice Raisins, in boxes of various sizes.

[We can heartily recommend the above establishment, especially as our friend Mr. Hays, who is every way reliable, has taken charge of the room appropriated for Passover.—Ed. Oc.]

ISAAC RHEINSTROM,

The oldest Matzah Baker in town, recommends himself to his old customers, and promises to serve them in the best manner for the approaching Passover holy days.—Apply for the present at his residence.

PASSOVER GROCERIES.

The Subscriber, thankful for the liberal patronage bestowed on him last year, informs the Jewish public that he will open, on Monday, April 11, 1859, an assortment of fine Groceries, selected expressly for the coming Passover. Having a room specially appropriated to that purpose, and having engaged the services of an Israelite, who will be constantly in attendance, he hopes to meet with a share of your patronage.
