Remember to Sunday

My dearest love

I received your letter My dear lips I was happy to hear that You were all well - anxious to write me here as I find that there is more to do than I imagined and I am rendering good service to Mr B in the Bank office & Notwithstanding the great excitement against it I think it may be saved although I doubt whether I may make any thing by it - it may do no harm he that is useful to day may be serviceable tomorrow and on many accounts I desire to hold on where I am - I may not therefore be able to leave until the end of the week I wrote to Mr Howard of the Times to give Pranny any money he may have for me which he may do on Monday or Tuesday for you You had better begin to make all the preparations you can for Pisa - dont bring any thing more on the occasion than is absolutely necessary - it will be times enough next week to get our Notes You may order them from the Autos a Patersons Copyist I liked the new ones of last year but still I dont think there is as much substance in
