NOTICE

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified by law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

Please note: The constituent partners of the Center for Jewish History reserve the right to refuse a photocopy order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law or violate its mission to preserve materials relating to Jewish history.

I agree that this copy will be used solely for private study, scholarship or research. I understand that copyright is not conveyed with this copy.

I will not quote from, publish, reproduce, or display any material in this copy, in whole or in part, without written permission from the copyright holder and/from _____, from whose holdings the copy is being made.

This copy will not be given to other institutions or sold.
