fitting and furnishing the Building for the pu-poses to which it is to be devoted. The Je-have always been distinguished for their readiness to support every well considered scheme charity, and it must be admitted that the prese-scheme is one to which everyone must give hearty approval. The Committee therefore co-fidently trust that this Appeal will meet with liberal response from all members of the Jew-community, who desire to advance the we-being of their poorer coreligionists.
